

TIES THAT BIND

Digital Inclusion Project

Ties That Bind is a program that provides Grandparents that are raising their grandchild/grandchildren with basic practical computer skills to be equipped to use a computer, use the most utilized computer programs, responsibly monitor their grandchild's computer use and safely access Internet based resources.

Course Contents

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| * Knowledge of and using computer parts, e.g. mouse, earphone jack, and ports     | * Confidence in navigating around personal computers                            |
| * Understanding and using storage concepts like files & folders                   | * Opening and closing files and applications and using different types of files |
| * Understanding basic network concepts like connection, uploading and downloading | * Understanding security risks like malware, file security and online security  |
| * Basic and safe internet browsing  | * Use of social media networks like Facebook                                    |

Our hours of instruction are Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3-5 PM.
We will observe all JPS holidays . Contact us to see if we are opened during school closings. Class duration : 12 weeks.

CALL Michael Cohen or Barbara Thornton at
601-969-3088